

Dark forest of my night Of all my fears

Which I must fight
Call all my Angels to my side
I stand alone
I shall not hide.

So darker now I cannot see (chorus)
Beyond the ridge and then be free
Instead the gorse confuse my range
And darker still and darkest strange.

I see the light beyond the hill
I walk fast with all my skill
Instead it seems to move away
So buried in another day

So darker now I cannot see (chorus)
Beyond the ridge and then be free
Instead the gorse confuse my range
And darker still and darkest strange.

So then at last the light did break
So from my slumber I did wake
Into the world where I partake
A little thought to share or take.

So darker now I cannot see (chorus)
Beyond the ridge and then be free
Instead the gorse confuse my range
And darker still and darkest strange.

The evening star
Is my desire
To listen to its silent fire
To help dispel all my fears
Open my eyes
Wipe away my tears.

So darker now I cannot see (chorus)
Beyond the ridge and then be free
Instead the gorse confuse my range
And darker still and darkest strange.
